REMARKS AFTER ALLOWANCE

Commissioner for Patents:

Applicants respectfully disagree with the Examiner's assertion in the Statement of Reasons for Allowance, that all limitations of the independent claims other than the final limitation are taught by the "cited prior art." The assertion fails to identify any specific prior art reference or references, let alone any specific portions of a reference or references. The assertion also fails to identify where the Examiner finds such teaching in a single reference or a combination of references. After review, Applicants' attorney has been unable to locate the purported specific teachings in the cited references.

Consequently, Applicants believe that the independent claims are patentable for reasons other than those identified by the Examiner.

Respectfully submitted,

Seed Intellectual Property Law Group PLLC
